

University of Colorado Cancer Center SYMPOSIUM SERIES

Jeanette A. Waxmonsky, Ph.D.

Associate Clinical Professor, Colorado School of Public Health and a licensed psychologist, Assistant Director Community Engagement Research, University of Colorado Cancer Center

Donald E. Nease, Jr., M.D.

Adjoint Professor of Family Medicine and Director of Community Engagement for the Colorado Clinical and Translational Sciences Institute, University of Colorado – Anschutz Campus

“From Insight to Impact: Resources to Enhance Cancer Research via Community-Engagement”

Host Program: COE

Tuesday December 16, 2025

11:00 am – 12:00 pm MT

In-person: Hensel Phelps West Auditorium

Pizza Lunch will be served 10:35-10:55 am

Virtually HERE or Scan the QR code

CME Credit Available

At the conclusion of this presentation, the participant should be able to:

1. Describe community engagement research methods from design through dissemination;
2. Identify specific methods and resources that can be used for their research;
3. Describe community engagement research outcomes and examples.

Disclosure Statement: All of the planners, faculty or individuals in control of content for this educational activity have no relevant financial relationships to disclose with ineligible companies whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling re-selling or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.

The University of Colorado School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Colorado School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CME Certificates are distributed once per year.

Zoom Link